Have you...

- Narrowed down your list of colleges/universities that you plan on applying to? (If no, use www.gacollege411.org for help.)
- Completed all of your college applications? (and submitted them before the deadline!!!)
- Sent your official transcript to the colleges to which you have applied? (Transcript request forms can be found on the bookshelf in the counseling center. Students &/or Parents can complete T/R forms. Upon completion, give the form to Mrs. Ashley, Counseling Secretary, for processing.)
- Submitted your official SAT/ACT test scores to the colleges to which you have applied? (Official test scores must be sent by the testing agency. Simply log into your account & follow the prompts. A $ charge may apply if you didn’t select schools during test registration. SAT=www.collegeboard.com ACT=www.actstudent.org)
- Completed your FAFSA? (www.fafsa.ed.gov)
  Requested a pin number so that you can sign your FAFSA? (*student & parent must have a pin--- www.pin.ed.gov)
- Applied for scholarships? (Please use scholarshipplus/dekalb.com and also check counselor webpage pay close attention to the rolling announcements)
- Met your SWD financial obligations? (All seniors must be cleared financially prior to graduation. Example: Senior Dues, Missing Text/Library Books, Sports Uniforms/Equipment, Etc….)
- Taken the ASVAB? (The ASVAB is a career inventory that is required if you plan to enter the military following graduation. However, all students can take the exam, even if they are not interested in the military.
- Taken the Work Readiness Exam & submitted job applications? (If you plan to enter the world of work following graduation, the work readiness exam is a great tool to help you stand out during your job search.)
- Have you met all of your deadlines? (When preparing for life after high school, deadlines are of the utmost importance. Make sure that you meet all deadlines to give yourself the best possible chance for success!!!!!!!)